

Marking a deceased patient bed for cleaning

When a patient is marked as deceased often times the patient remains in the room for a variety of reasons. It is the floors responsibility to remove the bed block so that the housekeeper is triggered to clean the room.

Give it a try

1. Right Click on the blocked room.
2. Click on Add/Remove Bed Blocks.

Unit Manager (WAMC 3W MED SURG) - Last Refresh Time: 10/10/2016 8:30:01 AM

Ass	Bed	D/T	Dest	Out	Patient / Bed	Pa	Pt C	Mis	Accom	Iso	Fac	RN	LPN	CNA	Attending	Dx	Cd	App
	333				Blocked: Deceased											None
	332				Blocked: Deceased											None
	330				Blocked: Deceased											None
	334				Blocked: Isolation											None
	332				Blocked: Other											None
	332				Blocked: Other											None

Current Staff (17)
Attending
 Adel A Boutros, MD
 Anoshiravan Hami,
 Ching Gwue Lee, MD
 Deno Douman Kang
 Fariborz Shams, DO
 Hassan Mohamed Al

3. You will get the Edit Blocks pop up.
4. Click on Remove from Room.

Unit Manager (WAMC 3W MED SURG) - Last Refresh Time: 10/10/2016 8:30:01 AM

Ass	Bed	D/T	Dest	Out	Patient / Bed	Pa	Pt C	Mis	Accom	Iso	Fac	RN	LPN	CNA	Attending	Dx	Cd	App
	333				Blocked: Deceased											None
	332				Blocked: Deceased											None
	330				Blocked: Deceased											None
	334				Blocked: Isolation											None
	332				Blocked: Other											None

Edit Blocks for 330 330-02

Deceased Patient

Added by Bina Sehmi on 10/10/2016 at 0806 (Block ID: 72259)

5. This action releases the room and automatically sends a cleaning request to EVS.